Part 4 Paraphrase

- Hans's new classmate has a strange name, Dimitri. Hans is curious about his nationality. One day Hans plucked up the courage to ask him, 'Where do you come from?' And he answered, 'I come from Greece.' Hans was very interested in Greece, so he asked, 'What's the climate like in your country?' Dimitri said proudly, 'It's very pleasant.' Hans kept on asking, 'What's the weather like in spring?' Dimitri answered, 'It's often windy in March. It's always warm in April and May, but it rains sometimes.' 'That's wonderful,' he went on, 'What's it like in summer?' Dimitri answered, 'It's always hot in June, July and August. The sun shines every day.' 'It's the same as ours.' Hans said, 'So is it cold or warm in autumn?' Dimitri answered, 'It's always warm in September and October. It's often cold in November and it rains sometimes.' Hans hesitated slightly and said, 'And...' Dimitri suddenly blurted out, 'I know your question, Is it very cold in winter? Right? It's often cold in December, January and February. It snows sometimes.'
