Part 4 Paraphrase

- Mrs. Smith is a teacher. One day she wanted to teach her students how to send a letter, so she went shopping to make preparation for the class. She wanted some envelopes, so she said to the shop assistant, 'I want some envelopes, please.' The shop assistant asked, 'Do you want the large size or the small size?' She said, 'The large size, please. Do you have any writing paper?' She got the answer, 'Yes, we do. but I don't have any small pads. I only have large ones. Do you want a pad?' She answered, 'Yes, please. And I want some glue.' The shop assistant passed her a bottle of glue, 'A bottle of glue.' Suddenly, Mrs. Smith remembered she had to buy some chalk. She added, 'And I want a large box of chalk, too.' The shop assistant said, 'I only have small boxes. Do you want one?' She didn't want a small box of chalk, so she said, 'No, thank you.' The shop assistant asked, 'Is that all?' She answered quickly, 'That's all, thank you.' She gave him some money but didn't leave at once. After a long silence, eventually, the shop assistant asked, 'What else do you want?' Mrs. Smith winked and gave him a nice smile, 'I want my change.'
